

21 December 2011

The Division 3 2012 fixture has finally been released. As previously mentioned, it will be a 12 team competition. Our 2012 home and away season opens with a home game verses Albert Park and closes with a home game verses Elsternwick AFC.

The four opponents that we only play once include Hawthorn AFC who we play away, promoted club St Francis Xavier OC who we play at home (so no long drive down to Beaconsfield), relegated club Aquinas OC who we play at home and UHS-VU who we play away.

It is with pleasure that we announce that David Neilson will be the assistant coach for the Reserves in season 2012 working with close mate Stevie G. Like Steve, David joined the club in 2005 but has had terrible luck with injuries in recent years. Steve and David will be a fantastic team working with the Reserves, well done David and bring on Season 2012!

The Ivanhoe Amateur Football Club would like to announce the appointment of Stevie 'G' Graeme as the Reserves Coach for season 2012. Steve has been a player at our club since 2005 and has forged a reputation for being an extremely hard worker who puts his body on the line for his teammates, throughout over 100 games for the club. A fantastic year awaits the Reserves team with many young men coming through the ranks who will benefit from Steve's work ethic. Please join us in congratulating Steve, well done!

1. A reminder about subscription fees for 2012. Players will NOT get a game if their subs are not paid before round 1 2012, but there are two options on how to pay these, in full or via 4 instalments. For those wanting to take advantage of the instalment option, the first instalment is due on Monday 12 December and Kate will be at the club on Monday to collect these. Kate will also be there on Wednesday night if you are unable to make Monday night. For those who weren't at training for the flyer and require more details about the subscriptions, please download the letter from Kate by clicking here.

2. A reminder that the Christmas wine special provided to our club is ending next Friday 16 December. Please take advantage of this special and help support the club in getting Season 2012 off to a great start. To see the special please click here.

3. A reminder also that our last training session before the Christmas break is next Wednesday 14 December and will include a light training session, a session with the people from Good Sports and a BBQ and drinks. Please make a big effort to be there.
